PREPARATIONS FOR BIRTHDAY PARADE

Principal Features in Connection With Festivities Monday.

T.W O CELEBRATIONS.

Richmond Blues Decide to Escort Governor on His Visit to Alexandria—Howitzers May Come.

Governor Henry C. Stuart, of Virginia, accompanied by his recently appointed staff of fifteen Virginia colonies, resplendent in their magnificent new uniforms heavy with gold braid, will be one of the principal features of next Monday's parade in honor of the birthday of General Washington. The staff, which has just been named by Governor Stuart, will wear their new uniforms for the first time. Acting as escort to the Governor will be the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, and the Richmond Howitzers. Adjutant W. W. Sale, of Richmond, will also be present.

The preparations for the parade are being completed very rapidly. Already many of the stores have been decorated and the work of adorning the streets has been commenced. King street, from Fairfax street to Payne street, a distance of ten squares, will be decorated with flags and pennants. On two squares of Washington street gayly colored banners will be hung from standards erected along the sidewalk. The city hall, fire engine houses and police station will be draped with the national colors It is said that private residences will be decorated more elaborately for this occasion than ever before.

Alexandria is being rapidly cleaned of the snow of a week ago. For the past two days City Engineer Dunn has had two hundred men and fifty carts at work removing the snow from the main streets and along the route of the parade. If weather conditions continue as they are there will be no evidence of the heavy snow on the pavements.

There will be really two celebrations of the birthday on next Monday In addition to the patriotic celebration by the Washington Birthday Association the annual Masonic celebration by Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons will be held. General Washington was the first master of this old lodge and this was the first organization to celebrate his birthday. The annual banquet of the lodge will be held at 8 o'clock in the evening in the Elks' auditorium. Previous to that time a regular communication of the lodge will be held in the Elks' lodge room. The principal speaker at the banquet will be Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall About six hundred members of the craft are expected at the banquet.

There will also be a meeting in Alexandria on Monday of the George Washington Masonic Memorial Association composed of the grand masters of all the grand lodges of the United States which are affiliated with that organization. More than 30 grand lodges will be represented. This organization, which has for its object the erection in this city of a memorial temple to Washington, the Mason, holds a meeting here once a year on Washington's birthday the delegates will commence to arrive on Sunday and the meeting of the association will be called to order on Monday morning at 10 o'clock by General J. T. Shyrock, grand master of Masons of Maryland.

Three pilgrimages will be made to Mount Vernon on Monday, one in the morning by the officers of the Washington Birthday Association and two in the afternoon, one by the officers and members of Alexandria-Washington Lodge and the other by the officers and members of the Masonic Memorial Association. Each will place wreaths upon the tomb of the first president.

A dispatch from Richmond says that although orders have not yet been issued, members of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues' Battalion have been informed that the battalion will come to Alexandria on Monday to act as escort to Governor Henry C. Stuart. The Richmond Howitzers, to whom an invitation has also been extended, will decide tonight whether or not to accept.

A special train will be run from Richmond over the Richmond-Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad for the benefit of the Richmond Military companies. It will leave early in the morning, and probably will return at a late hour Monday night in order that the members of the militia need lose only one day from their work.

While the trip will be optional with the members of the Blues and the Howitzers, if they accept the incitation, it is expected that both commands will carry practically their full strength, as the occasion will be one of the most pretentious that they will be called upon to participate in for some time.

MISS M. C. RANDOLPH A BRIDE.

Weds C. W. Grandy, Jr., at Christ Church, Millwood, Va.

Winchester, Va., Feb. 19.—Miss Mary Carter Randolph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzhugh Randolph, of Athlone, the Colonial estate near Millwood, was married last night to Cyrus Wiley Grandy, Jr., of Norfolk, Va., in Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, Millwood, Clarke county, Va.

The wedding, which was attended by a large gathering of family connections and friends prominent in fashionable society circles, was one of the most notable social functions of the winter season. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John M. Robeson, rector of the church, and the wedding marches were rendered by Mrs. George Jones, of Millwood. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin, trimmed in old family lace, and a tulle veil, which was fastened by a small wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. She was attended by her aunt, Miss Ethel C. O'Fallon, of Red Castle Farm, Millwood, who wore a gown of pink brocade and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. There were no bridesmaids.

Robert Tunstall, of Norfolk, was best man, and the ushers were Robert Munford and Beverley Randolph a brother of the bride, of Richmond; William B. S. Grandy, a brother of the groom; Charles Hunter and Charles F. McIntosh, of Norfolk, and Arthur M. R. Charrington, of Warrenton, Va.

The wedding reception was held at Scaleby Manor, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brooke Gilpin, of Baltimore. The reception was followed by a dance, which continued until a late hour last night, when the bride and groom boarded a Norfolk and Western R. R., train for a lengthy wedding trip.

The bride's collection of wedding gifts is one of the largest received by a Clarke county bride in a long time. It consists of an almost endless variety of elegant presents, sent by relatives and friends from many parts of the United States.

MISSING WOMAN FOUND.

Miss Nell Spradlin, Reported Missing Last Week, Visited Petersburg Friends.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 19. — The search of relatives and the police of several cities for Miss Nell Spradlin, of Bedford City, who was reported missing last week, came to an end yesterday morning when she walked into the home of her brother, A. L. Spradlin, 108 West Marshall steeet. She explained her absence by telling her brother that she had been stopping with friends in Petersburg. She wrote him several postcards, she said, but the evidently miscarried, as the brother never received them.

Miss Spradlin left her home in Bedford City on February 10 to come to Richmond to visit her brother. When she did not put in an appearance on Saturday, Mr. Spradlin reported the matter to the police. She had been ill for some time, it was said, and she was coming here to recuperate.

The Decoration Committee of the George Washington Birthday Association parade request all citizens to decorate their homes and business places as early as possible 19 adv.

O'SHAUGHNESSY READY TO FIGHT

Editor of Huertista Organ Threatens to "Get" American Diplomat.

MAY LYNCH BANDIT.

General Villa Assures United States That Outlaw Will be Executed if Turned Over to Him.

Mexico City, Feb. 19. — Nelson O'Shaughnessy, American charge d'affaires, today threatened to shoot Diaz Miron, editor of El Imparcial, the Huertista newspaper, which has been villifying President Wilson, if the editor accosted him.

O'Shaughnessy backed up his threat by carrying a postol and by displaying another within easy reach on his desk at the embassy.

Charge-Rshrd mht mht mht mht mht

A telegram from Secretary of State Bryan was received by O'Shaughnessy commending the charge for resenting the insults of El Imparcial and assuring him the American government would give OShaughnessy and his family all the protection necessary.

O'Shaughnessy armed himself against Miron, because of open threats against him made by the editor. The American diplomat twice complained to General Huerta about sucrrilous editorials in El Imparcial attacking President Wilson and Huerta ordered Miron to stop them.

That incensed Miron and he made his threats to "get" O'Shaughnessy.

The charge told all about it when the newspaper men visited the embassy, sighted the pistol.

"I am armed, and I will shoot Diaz Miron if he accosts me, here or elsewhere," O'Shaughnessy said.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 19.—Fearing that an attempt would be made to assassinate Maximo Castillo, Mexican bandit, who wrecked the Cumbre tunnel at Pearson, Mexico, Gen. Hugh Scott, commander at Fort Bliss, today ordered extraordinary precautions taken to guard the prisoner.

United States troops will prevent the approach to Castillo's car of any friends of the Americans who perished in the Cumbre disaster.

Castillo and the six bandits captured with him were expected here yesterday, but the military authorities decided not to start him from Hachita, N. M., until noon today. Long before the train was due yesterday several hundred angry Americans and Mexicans gathered at the station. It is expected the same crowd will gather this afternoon when the train arrives.

General Francisco Villa, at Juarez, when asked today whether he would execute Castillo if the bandit were turned over to him:

"You may print in the largest type and telegraph to every newspaper in the world that, if the American authorities, finding they cannot adequately punish Castillo and his bandits, will turn them over to me, they shall be publicly executed.

"The men will be tried, of course, but the evidence against them is overwhelming. Their deaths shall be merciful, but speedy."

Thomas Edwards, American consul at Juarez, does not believe reports that Villa intends to execute as a spy Gustave Bausch, American imprisoned there.

DROPS CHILDREN INTO SNOW.

Heroic Father Saves Wife and Six Children

Jersey City, Feb. 19.—Snow which Stephen Grob heaped up when cleaning his sidewalks after the snowstorm saved the lives of his six children yesterday. With fire raging in the house he dropped them one at a time from the roof into the snow. None was hurt, although the youngest child is only a year old.

Before saving the children Grob carried his wife down stairs to safety. The house was destroyed.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Robert H. Terrell, a negro lawyer, who for 16 years has been a justice of the peace and a member of the Municipal Court of the District of Columbia, is the only Municipal Court judge who will be reappointed by President Wilson, according to announcement made at the White House. The reappointment of Terrell; it is understood will be made as a recognition of the negroes who supported the Democratic ticket in the middle western States in 1912.

Backed by the administration, the Alaskan bill authorizing President Wilson to construct a railroad from Alaska's coast to its great coal fields, was passed by the house late yesterday by a vote of 230 to 87. A similar measure has already passed the senate, and the bill will be taken up at once in conference between the two houses, with a view to sending it quickly to President Wilson, who has signified his intention of signing the measure.

Among the remarkable storm stories told by the passengers of the Red Star liner Lapland, which reached New York yesterday, three days late, was the account of a large and brilliant meteor which burned its way through the snow and hail and plunged hissing into the sea within a short distance of the Lapland. Passengers said that on Friday night they were startled by the appearance in the northern sky of a brilliant ball of fire. Shooting in a parabola toward the liner, it seemd to them almost certain to fall on the Lapland's deck. Instead it burst into pieces with the report of a cannon and sank into the sea.

The county mansion owned by Mrs. Wm. K .Vanderbilt, Jr., near Westbury, Long Island, one of the finest in America, was burned to the ground yesterday, with damage estimated at close to $1,000,000.

United States Senator Thomas Pryor Gore, of Oklahoma, was late yesterday exonerated of the charges of improper conduct by a verdict in his favor in the suit for $50,000 damages instituted by Mrs. Minnie E Bond, of Oklahoma City. The verdict was returned ten minutes after the case was given to the jury. Only one ballot was taken.

A new trail from St. Nicholas cemetery, where Miss Theresa Hollander was clubbed to death Monday night led Chief of Police Michels out of Aurora, Ills., yesterday. The girl's former sweetheart, Anthony Petras, a 23-year-old Austrian, is still held in jail. It is said Chief Michels, went to Chicago to question a former Auroran whose pocket knife was found a few feet from the body of the girl, and whose name was on the knife handle. Louis Hollander, father of the slain girl, swore an oath of vengeance yesterday as he stood beside her coffin. "The murderer shall die," Hollander swore, in the presence of friends and relatives, who were gathered in the room. "If he escapes the law he will not escape me. All I ask is two minutes alone with him, and I will cut him to pieces. The murder was deliberately planned, and the murderer shall die for it."

Harry Ullery, a 17-year-old schoolboy, is under arrest in St. Joseph, Mich., charged with the murder of Mrs. Emma Dayhuff, 44 years old, a storekeeper at Fairfield. The boy, who is a member of a highly respected family, says that an impulse to do something exciting caused him to kill the woman. Ullery, in his confession, says he awaited his opportunity to shoot Mrs. Dayhuff, and after doing so, grabbed the money in the till, filled his pockets with chewing gum and candy, and then hurried home. The weapon stolen money and confections, were found in his room.

According to the police Mrs. Elmer Anschott, 17 years old, confessed to them that she had taken part in many burglaries for which her husband, who is 19 years old, was arrested and held for court in Pittsburgh, Pa. Dressed as a boy, her hair cut short, she stood guard outside the houses he robbed, with a revolver hidden under her coat, they say. Quantions of silverware and other valuables, alleged to have been stolen by the couple, were recovered by the police. Mrs. Anschott will be given a hearing tomorrow.

SIGNING OF THE ENABLING ACT

Governor Affixes Signature to Bill Without Formalities.

NO STATEMENT MADE

Prohibition Forces Prepare at Once to Circulate Petitions in State for Election.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 19.—Governor Henry C. Stuart signed the Williams enabling act providing for a state election on the question of prohibition, at 12:53 o'clock yesterday. The signing of the bill was without formalities, and was in the presence only of Secretary Forward and Assistant Secretary Martin. Attorney-General John Garland Pollard had just left the office of the Governor, but neither Mr. Pollard nor Governor Stuart made any public statement in regard to the bill. Secretary Forward communicated the fact that the bill had been signed to Senator Mapp and Delegate Williams, and announcement of the action of the Governor was made on the floor of each house shortly before 1 o'clock.

In brief, the enabling act provides for an election on September 22, on petition to the governor of approximately 18,000 qualified voters, on which the ballots shall read "for state-wide prohibition" and "against State-wide prohibition." In the event of the majority being for prohibition the Governor is to make proclamation of the fact and the licensed sale of liquor on and after November 30, 1916, will be illegal. Should the majority be against prohibition, the present status providing for prohibition in country districts and for local option in towns and cities, shall be continued in force.

Senator Mapp, Delegate Pennington and Dr. Cannon were busily at work last night drafting the anti-shipping bill which will be introduced in both branches of the General Assembly today.

The bill claims to reach conditions which allow intoxicating liquors to be shipped into dry territory to minors, irresponsible and vicious persons and "blind tigers."

It provides in general that ardent spirits can be shipped into dry territory either from points without the state, or from one point in the state to another point within the state only upon the following conditions: "The dealer must receive a written order from the purchaser, accompanied by cash, certified check, express or money order. No licensed dealer can give away ardent spirits or sell the same on credit. No common carrier can receive ardent spirits for shipment unless all charges for transportation have been paid on the same, and no common carrier is allowed to collect or transmit any charge for the purchase of said ardent spirits.

MONTAGUE ON SUBCOMMITTEE

Will Assist Covington on Trade Commission Bill.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Representative Montague, of Virginia, has been appointed on the subcommittee to draft an Inter-State Trade Commission bill. Five Democrats and two Republicans continue the subcommittee, of which Representative Covington, of Maryland, is chairman.

Representative Covington, Chairman Adamson of the Inter State Commerce Commission, and other members said there was no lack of harmony in the preparation of a trade commission bill and that the purpose was to carry out the President's recommendations.

PICTURE FILMS STOLEN.

Youth Alleged to Have Taken Over One Hundred Thousand Dollars' Worth.

New York, Feb. 19.—Following a secert alarm sent out for motion picture films valued at $126,050, stolen Sunday night from the office and storeroom of the Commercial Motion Picture Company, 103 West 101st street, Lieuteant Heuman and Detective Maddock went yesterday to the Film Exchange Building, 145 West Forty-fifth street.

The films stolen included the original Paul Rainey African hunt pictures, valued at $100,000; also ten cans of films, valued at $750, and twenty-seven rolls of negatives, showing the first three acts of "Hiawatha," valued at $25,000. In some way the thief also carried off a moving picture machine valued at $300.

In their secret search for the films detectives were sent to many moving picture theaters in Manhatten, Bronx, Kings, Queens, and Richmond.

A watch also was set on outgoing steamships and the police of this country and Europe were notified.

At the Film Exchange Heuman and Maddock were told that on Tuesday a youth had come in and offered to sell some valuable hunting films for $25,000. He was asked where he got them, and said that he simply was the selling agent for the owners. Suspicion was aroused, and, although the pictures were recognized, to be worth several times the price asked, no buyer could be found.

The detectives were at the exchange yesterday afternoon when the youth again entered. Again he tried to find a buyer, and, failing, went to the street, where he was placed under arrest.

On being questioned he said he was acting for some one else and didn't know where the pictures came from, He said he was Harry Friedman, eighteen, of 111 West 104th street.

"Didn't you formerly work for the Commercial Company?" he was asked by Heuman.

"Yes," he answered. "I worked for 'em three days last week, and quit because they wouldnt pay me. They said I had ruined $20,000 worth of films.

FURTHER ACTION REFUSED BY BOARD

Declines to Reconsider Vote Adverse to Medical College Merger.

MOVEMENT IS KILLED.

University of Virginia Will Proceed at Once to Enlarge Its Own Medical Department.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 19.—The board of visitors of the University of Virginia, after a brief session yesterday in Charlottesville, refused to take any further action in regard to taking over the Medical College of Virginia as a part of the University and moving the medical department of the University to Richmond. A motion to reconsider adverse action taken several weeks ago was signally defeated.

Seven of the ten members of the board were present, as follows; Armistead C. Gordon, of Staunton, rector; Judge J. K. M. Norton, of Alexandria; Congressman Hal D. Flood of Appomattox; R. Tate Irvine, of Big Stone Gap; William H. White, of Richmond; Dr. William F. Drewry, of Petersburg; and George R. B. Michie, of Charlottesville. The absentees were John W. Craddock, of Lynchburg; Walter Tansil Oliver, of Fairfax, and Superintendent of Public Instruction, R. C. Stearns. The board is said to be divided against the merger, seven against and three for it.

No statement was given out as to any assurances received in regard to the proposed endowment of the medical department, the conditions of which, it is said, are that there should be but one medical school in Virginia; that it should be located in Richmond, and form a constituent part of the State university.

The university, it is understood, without hope of endowment, will proceed, with state aid, to the erection of additional laboratories, the enlargement of the University Hospital, and the establishment on broader lines of the medical department, which now has only about 100 students, as against more than 500 at the Medical College of Virginia in Richmond

MISSING MAN.

The unknown whereabout of Walter P. Kerrick, of this city, is causing his relatives and friends apprehension. He disappeared Friday last. Mr. Kerrick is 43 years old. He is a carpenter by occupation, and resided at 516 Cameron street.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria-- Happenings in Society.

Mrs. Henry O'Bannon Cooper entertained at a charming bridge luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home in Lloyd, in honor of her house-guests, Mrs. Charles Greene, of Laurel, Delaware, and Mrs. Silas L. Cooper, of Culpeper, Va.

The decorations were in keeping with the 22nd of February. The place cards were in the form of hatchets. In the center of each table was a miniature cherry tree and as the guests progressed in the game cherries were plucked from the tree which proved a novel and attractive way of keeping score. Mrs. Barbour won the first prize, Miss Cooper, the second, Mrs. Greene the consolation and Miss Cochran the "bobby."

Those enjoying Mrs. Cooper's gracious hospitality were Mrs. John S. Barbour, of Fairfax county, Va., Mrs. Edward Derrick, Mrs. Albert Burr, Mrs. Reginald Walker, Mrs. John Larcomb, Mrs. Hoffman, and Miss Kate Cooper, of Washington; Mrs. M. N. Mills, of Natural Bridge, Va., Mesdames D. Moxley Low, Frank S Harper, Charles Edgar Nicol, T Anderson Sommers, Isaac Gregg, Richard E. DEATH OF ROBERT M. CROOK.

Well-Known Confederate Veteran Passes Away This Morning.

Robert M. Crook, an old and well-known citizen, died at his home on South Washington street, at an early hour this morning of pleurisy. The deceased was about 70 years old. He leaves a widow (daughter of the late Jeremiah Franks), and four children—two sons and two daughters.

Mr. Crook at the outbreak of the war between the States was a member of Kemper's Battery, but later served on Col. John S. Mosby's command. Upon his return to this city he was employed as a carpenter and for many years was an attache in the car building shops of the Southern Railway in this city. He was a member of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans.

WELCOME RAIN.

The threatening conditions of yesterday were followed by rain early last night which continued to fall, at times coplously. It continued to fall today, and the mercury in the thermometer having forged upward during the past forty-eight hours, much of the snow and ice in the streets has disappeared.

The work of cleaning the thoroughfares over which the procession will move on Monday is being prosecuted as vigorously as possible.

FOUR-MILE RUN HORROR

Most Frightful Railroad Accident in This Vicinity Occurred Twenty-nine Years Ago Tonight

The night of Thursday, February 19, 1885, was akin to the period from which we have just emerged—intensely cold with the ground covered with snow.

Early that night what was known as the "Louisville express" the fastest train on the Southern Railway, arrived at this city behind time, and after a brief stop preceded on its way to Washington. It was the custom in these days for a crew of the Washington Southern Railway to take charge of Southern trains when they reached Alexandria. They were known as the pilot crew, inasmuch as the trains ran on another road from this city to Washington. A new locomotive which had taken the prize at a fair in Chicago was attached to the Southern train, and after it had passed the city limits it was given all the speed possible. There was a "dip" from W. & O. Junction to Four-mile Run, and when the train approached that point it was running at a high rate of speed. There was a tunnel under the old Alexandria Canal at Four-Mile Run in which there was but one track, the other portion of the road between Alexandria and Washington being doubled-tracked.

As the fast-fying Southern train was within a few yards of the tunnel a freight train of the Washington-Southern road was about to enter it from the north end. There was no time to take any means to stop the passenger train and the two locomotives came together with a terrible crash. The locomotive of the freight train was torn from the track to the shore of the cove on the east, and the cars of both trains except the Pullmans were completely wrecked.

Half a dozen men, members of the train crew, were killed and the wreckage took fire immediately, as several tank cars containing coal oil had been exploded by the terrible impact and their burning contents was licking up everything in the way of combustibles.

Passengers on the Louisville express and people living in the neighborhood worked heroically in succoring the injured and managed to uncouple and push the Pullman cars far enough south to save them from destruction. It was, however, impossible to stay the progress of the flames, although attempts were made to extinguish them with snow and earth, but they was frozen and such efforts were abandoned.

In a few minutes the cove was apparently afire, the burning oil spreading over the surface.

The fire did not burn itself out until next day, when it was seen that everything that could burn had been consumed and the rails twisted into all sorts of shapes, while tangled rods, car wheels, axles, etc., were lying in every direction. Half a dozen persons were killed in the accident.

Many people from this city visited the scene next day, and it was admitted that it was the most serious railroad accident that ever occurred in this neighborhood.

Washington Monument was dedicated the following Sunday, the late Senator John W. Daniel delivering the oration on the occasion.

PAY INSURANCE POLICIES.

The Board Motor Truck Company and the Board Armstrong Company have been paid insurance policies of $10,000 and $15,000, respectively by the Mutual Life Insurance Company on the life of the late B. F. Board, who was president of both concerns. The insurance company at first refused payment of policies on the ground that these companies held no insurable interest in Mr. Board's life, and the Appellate Court sustained decision of the lower court in favor of the plaintiff.

The Decoration Committee of the George Washington Birthday Association parade request all citizens to decorate their homes and business places as early as possible 19 adv.

Notice of Administration.

Having qualified as administrator of the estate of the late Ann M. Butler, all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make prompt settlement with the undersigned, and all persons to whom said estate is indebted are requested to present their accounts properly certified for payment.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Oriental Lodge of This City Celebrates Fifieth Anniversary of Founding of Order

In observance of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Knights of Pythias, Oriental Lodge held exercises last night at the Young People's Building, of the M. E. Church South. A musical and literary program was given and speeches were made by the following: Col. Geo. C. Cabell, supreme representative, Washington; B. A. Ruffin, past grand chancellor, Richmond; Maj. J. O. Saville, past grand chancellor, Richmond; Supreme Representative Williams New Mexico; Grand Chancellor O'Connor, New York, and Dr. Chas F. Russell, past chancellor, Herndon, Va. Remarks were made by E. R. Boyer, past chanceller of the local lodge.

Music was furnished by the choir of the First Baptist Church under direction of J. T. Preston.

The meeting was called to order by L. D. Sullivan, chancellor commander, who presided. Selections were given by the orchestra under direction of Prof. Carlton Padgett.

Special ritualistic services were held by the officers of the lodge.

A violin solo was given by Miss Caroline Kast, and an instrumental solo by Miss Jennie Richards. Misses Jennie Richards and Olive Davis gave an instrumental duet.

The committee of arrangements was composed of E. R. Boyer, chairman; Robinson Moncure, L. D. Sullivan, A. J. Butcher, M. R. Norris, W. W. Clements, and R. C. Sullivan.

Oriental Lodge No. 6, was instituted in this city December 15, 1868. The following are officers of the lodge: L. D. Sullivan, W. W. Clements, H Friedlander, R. C. Sullivan, E. R Boyer, A. J. Butcher, George W Bontz, J. M. Wells, A. F. Bacigalupo and J. C. Morgan.

SPECIAL GRAND JURY.

Several Indictments Presented by Commonwealth's Attorney.

A special grand jury of the Corporation Court met this morning at ten o'clock. The jury was composed of the following: P. M. Bradshaw Clarence C. Leadbeater, B. Baer Jr., Wiliam B. Smoot, Thomas L Carter, Alexander Kaufmann, Clarence N. Moore, Thomas W. Robinson and W. O. Tomlin.

The following indictments were presented by Commonwealth Attorney Samuel G. Brent:

Hugh Strider and George S. Finch charged with stealing shoes from a railway.

Oldie Moore, Melvin Mayhugh William Griffin and James Harrison charged with assaulting and robbing Edmund Clark.

Linwood Nelson, charged with shooting William H. Rose.

The trial of John Peverill, charged with robbing freight cars, was postponed.

The jury returned the following indictments:

True bills against Hugh Strider for grand larceny and Linwood Nelson for malicious shooting.

In the case against George S Finch for grand larceny, Oldie Moore, Melvin Mayhugh, William Griffin and James Harrison, charged with robbery, not true bills, were returned, and they were dismissed.

"Easy Street"
"Easy Street," ah, that's the place a of us want to go.
But it's off the end of "Hard Road, and the travel's hard and slow.
Many of us cannot climb the hills or scale the lofty rocks,
Survive the many hard falls, and recover from the shocks;
But keep on pressing on and on at some day you may get there
And breathe the balmy fragrance of it's fresh and wholesome air.
The idea is that we must work and earn the good things of life in order to enjoy them. Come to me for your next suit.

REWICKING Made Easy
EASY wicking is only one of the many improvements that make the new Perfection Oil Heater (Triangle trade mark) superior to any oil heater ever made before.
Wick and carrier are in one. Just turn up the old wick, slip it out and drop another in place.
PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER
This New Model Perfection Heater is smokeless, odorless and economical.
The shape of the font, wide and shallow, allows the oil to pass readily up the wick and insures an even, glowing heat even when the font is almost empty. The font holds more than a gallon of oil and an indicator shows the amount of fuel left at a glance.
There is no smoke or smell with a Perfection. The automatic-locking flame-spreader prevents smoking. No gallery to unscrew, or catch oil and dust.
Made with vitreous blue enamel or plain steel drums. Ornamental, inexpensive, lasts for years. Easily cleaned and moved about.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

$100,000 MORE TO SCHOOLS.

House Appropriation Bill About to be Reported, More Liberal to Elementary Education.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 19.—Primary and grammar schools will receive $10,000 more under the House appropriation bill, it is understood, than is provided in the Senate bill. The House bill, which has not yet been reported from committee, is slightly over $13,975,000, or about $15,000 more than the total in the Senate bill.

Like the Senate bill, the House bill is in two parts—the first, carrying an appropriation for 1914; the second providing for 1915. For 1914 the Senate bill gives $7,008,179; for 1915 it gives $6,817,288. For 1914 the House bill is said to give $7,508,000; for 1915, $6,907,000.

The extra $50,000 for 1914 will go to the common schools. Of the extra $100,000 provided by the House bill for 1915, half will go, it is said, to the public schools, and a large part of the $50,000 remaining will go to Blacksburg to assist in the replacement of the machine shops destroyed by fire some months ago

Auditor Moore has placed in the hands of the appropriations committee a statement to the effect that the total appropriation for 1914 and 1915 should not exceed $13,600,00. The appropriation recommended by the Senate exceeds this amount by about $225,000; that which will be recommended by the House will exceed the auditor"s limit by about $150,000 more.

In defense of this excess the House committee will be prepared to show, it is said, that all the money is needed and that the state can meet the demand upon its treasury. The committee will show that there will be available for the appropriation at the close of the 1914 fiscal year (September 30, 1914,) $7,187,280. At the beginning of the fiscal year there was a credit in the treasury of $833,824, making the total of $7,531,105 available for appropriation.

The committee in adding $100,000 to the Senate appropriation for 1915 assumes, it is understood, that the revenue for 1915 will certainly not be less than $7,000,000, which, with the credit on hand, will be ample to meet the appropriation and leave a surplus for 1916 of considerably over $500,000

Two Fatally Burned.

Spotsylvania, Va., Feb. 19.—On Tuesday afternoon the grandchild of Mansfield Carter, living near this place, caught on fire from a red-hot stove, and her grandmother, Mrs. Sallie Carter, an invalid, in attempting to extinguish the flames caught fire herself, and the flames soon enveloped both child and grand mother. Before any aid could be rendered them they survived only a few hours. The fire was put out, however, and the house saved.

NEGRO CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Caught Beneath Locomotive Tender, Which Rolls Into Turntable Pit.

Richmond, Feb. 19.—James Clory, colored, a hostler's helper, was instantly killed this morning shortly before 1 o'clock when he was caught beneath the tender of a locomotive, which rolled and fell into the pit of the roundtable in the Fulton roundhouse of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway.

The engine had been standing at the water tower ready to go out. In some manner the engineer released the brakes and it began to roll backward toward the turntable, which was reversed. Before the engine could be checked the tender had rolled intothe open pit, where Clory had been at work, and crushed him.

TELEGRAPHERS MEET.

Southern Knights of the Keys in Session at Richmond.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 19.—Questions for importance to telegraphers and the railways were discused at a secret meeting of the general chairmen of all the organizations of telegraphers of railways in the South, held here yesterday.

L. E. Hicks, general chairman of the telegraphers organization of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, presided.

Pickpocket Gets Ten Years.

Bristol, Va., Feb. 19.—F. Taylor, alias Henry Locker, an alleged pickpocket, was tried in the Corporation Court here yesterday on a charge of robbing S. B. Byrd, a North Carolinian, and given 10 years in the Virginia penitentiary. His partner, J. W. Borland, tried here recently on a similar charge, was given four years.

KILLS FATHER WITH AXE.

Negro Arrested for Slaying Parent Near Oaklette.

Norfolk, Feb. 19.—Junius Gordon, colored, 26 years old, was locked up in the Norfolk county jail Tuesday night on a charge of killing his father, Stephen Gordon, 56 years old, with an axe, at his home near Kemp's Crossing, Oaklette.

Gordon made no denial of the killing, when questioned in jail. He admitted it freely, and told him he struck his father when the latter defied him to come outside of his house, he said, and how his parent grappled with him, and threw him on the ground and then how he managed to get up on his knees and finally on his feet and when his father was about to attack him again, Gordon said he hit him in the head with the axe, and he fell to the ground.

Gordon was slightly under the influence of liquor, apparently, when he arrived at the jail. He said he and his father had drank a pint of liquor between them.

RESULT OF PROHIBITION.

Decreases in West Virginia of $612,000 in Revenues of State.

Charlestown, W. Va., Feb. 19.—Governor Henry D. Hatfield, in a statement declares that the reason the $75,000 appropriated for a West Virginia building at the Panama-Pacific exposition is not available is because of the deficit facing the State treasury.

Should all appropriations be paid, West Virginia's treasury will have a deficit of more than $1,2000,000 in 1915.

The governor said the Paint Creek strike cost $500,000 and that prohibition would result in a decrease in state revenues of more than $612,000 annually.

CONSERVATION OF GAME AND FISH.

Dr. E. Lester Jones, United States Deputy Commissioner of Fish and Fisheries, made an interesting address in the hall of the House of Delegates in Richmond yesterday following adjournment of the House Dr. Jones is a Virginian, and has given a close study to conditions in this State. He strongly commended the pending Hart-White game bill as the beginning of a new era in the conservation of the game and fish resources of the State.

Many factories and sawmills, he said, were emptying their waste into the streams, killing fish in immense quantities, and preventing their spawning. After careful study of the various streams in the State, and visits to many factories, Dr Jones asserted that there was no pollution that could not be taken care of without serious expense for the factories.

As to Chesapeake Bay fisheries, Dr. Jones said that wise and suitable legislation was becoming a vital question, the season of 1913 having been the poorest in many years in the run of shad and herring, while the sturgeon, formerly plentiful, had become almost extinct.

Summing up his suggestions, he strongly recommended the following measures:

1. A closed season on shad and other migratory fish from Saturday at sunset until Monday at sunrise in all the waters of the State between January 1 and June 1, thus giving the fish an opportunity on Sundays to pass the grounds usually covered with nets, and reach their spawning grounds.
2. Closed season on sturgeon for ten years.
3. That no food fish shall be used for any other purpose than for food
4. A uniform closed season on all trouts.
5. A uniform closed season for bass, pickerel and pike.
6. An act making it unlawful to deposit sawdust, dynamite or poisonous substances in the waters of the State.

ANSWERING THE LAST ROLL CALL.

The depleted ranks of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans were again invaded by the angel of death at an early hour this morning and another member of the gallant band which left Alexandria May 24, 1861, was escorted to the other side of the river and to the shade of the trees. Hence there will be another vacant chair when the survivors again gather January 19, 1915, around the festive board, as has been their wont during many years to receive and extend greetings—this annual reunion fondly anticipated by the wearers of the gray.

The great majority of Alexandrians who cast their fortunes with the late Southern Confederacy have paid the debt of nature, the few remaining trees in the clearing being as a corporal's guard

Old Alexandrians, having the means at their disposal, will have many sad memories reproduced by running their eyes down the rosters of the companies which left this city in 1861, which are carefully preserved in r history of the Seventeenth Virginia Infantry, published by Mr. George Wise shortly after the close of the war, or a history of Alexandria, written by the late F. L. Brockett an Geo. W. Rock, and the mortuary lis carefully preserved by Mr. Edgar Warfield, adjutant of Lee Camp.

In passing over the names and checking those which have gone to that bourne from which no traveler returns, it will be seen that but skeletons of the former roster survive.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A mutual divorce to Clarence H. McKay, president of the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company and numerous other corporations, and Katherine Duer Mackay, his wife, was granted by the courts of France on Wednesday last, it is announced. The decree obtained in Paris, was the result of a suit brought by Mrs. Mc Kay of desertion. Mr. McKay interposed a counter claim on the same grounds.

Several hundred men and women employed in the cloak firm of Rosenthal and Co., at 568 Broadway, N. Y. were thrown into a panic yesterday when Anthony Carnello shot Mary Cheverino, 16 years old, because she refused to marry him, then turned the weapon on himself, inflicting a mortal wound.

A story of the forcible detention of Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of Woodrow Wilson, on a ranch near Chihuahua, Mexico, by the Rebel leader Orozco, during Miss Wilson's visit to Mexico, in 1912, was told in Washington by Count L.S.DeBesa who is in Washington to supervise the exhibition of some moving pictures which he had made.

NOTICE.

DESTITUTION IN DOWNPOUR

Spanish City and Environs Stricken by Cloudburst Ruin.

Oviedo, Spain, Feb. 19.—A cloudburst yesterday wrought havoc in the city of Oviedo and the surrounding country. The lower part of the town was flooded and the residents were obliged to take refuge on the roofs of house.

In the country districts hundred of cattle were swept away, several houses collapsed and roads were inundated. The tracks of both the Northern and Asturias Railroad were washed away for a considerable distance.

The authorities have sent out urgent appeals for food, as many persons are destitute.

REV. DR. JOHN P. HYDE DEAD

Methodist Minister Chaplain of Stonewall Brigade And Teacher.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Feb. 19.—The Rev. Dr. J. P. Hyde, of Winchester Va., died Tuesday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles F. Hart, here, from a stroke of paralysis. Dr. Hyde was born at Annapolis, Md., 78 years ago and graduated from St. John,s Colege. He was chaplain of "Stonewall" Jackson's brigade during the Civil War and captain-general of the United Confederate Veterans and prominent in Masonic circles.

Dr. Hyde entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church South and was connected with the Baltimore Conference. He served a number of pastorates and when the Civil War broke out left the pulpit for the field. He was made chaplain of the Fifth Virginia Regiment which was attached to the Stonewall Brigade.

Returning to Winchester after the war, Dr. Hyde opened a school for girls, which afterward became known as the Valley Female College.
